There however may be some challenges which make billing directly not possible. There are factors which determine if we are able to charge your Insurance Company directly.

We recommend that you call your insurance company first and get the following information:

1. Does your plan allow a Registered Massage Therapist to charge directly to the insurance company?
2. Will the funds go to the service provider or the insured member?
3. Does your insurance company require a doctor's note to get reimbursed?
4. When is the start and finish of the fiscal year?
5. How much does the member get per year, per family member?
6. How much does the insurance company pay per treatment?

Once confirmation of direct billing is possible we will attempt to charge your insurance at the time of your appointment. When billing at the time of your appointment your insurance company has an option to not pay for the treatment. Even though your Insurance Company allows direct billing there is a chance your treatment will get audited. If this situation occurs then you are responsible to pay for your treatment and a receipt will be issued to you for payment.
